Meeting Updates/Reports

Clerk Schmit reported that she would be in the office on August 14th from 1-5pm for candidacy filing. The city also received notice for the Bigfork Valley Hospital Board elections.

Councilor Longtine asked about city insurance covering Rodeo Daze activities. Clerk Schmit was asked to review with insurance agent and let the Rodeo Daze committee know the answer.

NEW BUSINESS

Lawful Gambling Ordinance: The proposed ordinance was reviewed and it was determined that the ordinance needs further review and some questions need answers. Motion to table the Lawful Gambling Ordinance until the next meeting by J Krickhahn, seconded by Grady. MCU

Zoning Ordinance: The council reviewed the proposed ordinance, there was discussion on the application of the requirements and on fencing. Once the ordinance is approved the process of implementing can begin. Motion to approve Zoning Ordinance with set changes by Longtine, seconded by J Krickhahn. Vote 3 yes, 1 no. MC

OLD BUSINESS

Electrical Meter Transfer: More data was presented but there are still too many questions. Motion to table discussion until the next meeting by Grady, seconded by J Krickhahn.

Model Basic Code: Attorney John Licke brought a sample of the Model Basic Code that he recommended the council subscribe to. This version will be updated with changes when applicable. It notes what ordinances need public hearings and gives sample ordinances. The council would have to review all current ordinances and determine what they would like to supersede the Basic Code. Motion to review current ordinances to determine what should be kept and move forward with adopting the Model Basic Code by J Krickhahn, seconded by Grady. Vote 3 yes, 1 no. MC
